No. CT-4094-20

Div. I

vs.

DEFENDANTS.

NOTICE OF A THESIS

1. COMES NOW Plaintiff, Hwang(Pro Se) for submitting this NOTICE OF A THESIS, and alleges or/and states the following:

2. The Plaintiff respectfully submits this NOTICE OF A THESIS to this Honorable Court.

Pahis, Stratos. “Corruption in Our Courts: What It Looks Like and Where It Is Hidden”, The Yale Law Journal, Vol. 118, No. 8 (June, 2009), pp. 1900-1943 (44 pages).

3. The Plaintiff respectfully submits this NOTICE OF A THESIS/NOTE/PAPER to this Honorable Court to indicate or/and understand the judicial corruption(s) could exist and be significant problem(s) in the State of Tennessee or/and in the United States.

4. It is said that, in the thesis, a judiciary without honesty has little chance of executing its moral and constitutional duties, no matter how many rules of ethics exist. This is said to be especially TRUE in the United States, where the judiciary is afforded wide discretion.

5. The study suggests, in the conclusion of the thesis, there is a troubling gap in our efforts to prevent and prosecute judicial corruption.

6. The Plaintiff respectfully submits this NOTICE OF A THESIS for the record and/or for the Honorable Court.

7. The Plaintiff prays that this Honorable Court award such other relief, at law or in equity, as to which Plaintiff may be justly entitled or the Court may find appropriate/just/proper.
