PLAINTIFF-APPELLANT'S POSITION FOR THE STATUS CONFERENCE

1. This is Plaintiff-Appellant ██████████ Hwang(Pro Se)'s basic position for/at the status conference on December 3, 2024, Tuesday (12/03/2024).
2. Let's resolve the issues at the trial court again. Plaintiff-Appellant suggests/proposes/offers/thinks that such issues of this case can or should be resolved in the trial court.
3. This case doesn't have to be resolved at the appellate court.

4. Additionally, Plaintiff-Appellant Hwang can/may/will submit a proposed order about such motions (motion to reconsider, motion to alter or amend), or he can submit a proposed order for this status conference if the judge agrees.

5. The parties and the court can have another status conference, if necessary, for resolving the remaining issues.

Additional Information

---

6. This is an additional information about why the hearing day could NOT be set in the year of 2023 especially after Plaintiff-Appellant Hwang submitted his fourth responses for discovery process.

7. The opposing counsel did not cooperate to choose the convenient day for the hearing.

8. Plaintiff-Appellant Hwang had to go to or/and decided to stay and live in the city of Atlanta in the State of Georgia in the United States of America in 2023 in order to secure his safety and in order to avoid additional crime especially after he thought that there were constant or unceasingly crime toward him.

9. Plaintiff-Appellant Hwang's E-Filing account was blocked intentionally. Therefore, Plaintiff-Appellant could not file such necessary legal documents on time when he was in Atlanta in Georgia.

10. Eventually, Plaintiff-Appellant Hwang had to and decided to come back to Memphis in Tennessee because of such situations in order to continue his litigation efforts.

11. There are other kinds of known and unknown factors or reasons why the hearing date was not or could not be set at the trial court at that time in 2023, too.
